

YALE GIVES 720 DEGREES.

Graduates Among the Honored—
NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 20.—Degrees to the number of 703 in course and seventeen honorary were conferred by Yale at its 217th commencement to-day. As one-third of the candidates are in the national service, their part of khaki indicated that they were on furlough from training camps.

Among the recipients of honorary degrees were Andre Tardieu, High Commissioner of the French Republic in the United States; Sir Ernest Rutherford, physicist at the University of Manchester, who is co-operating with the French scientific mission; the Rev. John Kilmartin of Edinburgh, Scotland, who is with the British mission; Ignace Jan Paderewski, the pianist, and William Temple, Hornaday, Director of the New York Zoological Park.

New Corn Remover in Big Demand, Say Druggists

Since the virtues of Ios-Mint as a corn remover became known in this country, druggists have been having an extraordinary demand for this product, and it is predicted that this summer women will wear smaller and prettier shoes than ever.

The fact that this new discovery, which is made from a Japanese product, will actually remove corns—roots and all—without the slightest pain or soreness is, of course, mainly responsible for its large and increasing sale.

You apply just a little on a tender, aching corn, and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shriveled that it may be lifted out with the fingers—root and all.

Ios-Mint is a clean, creamy, snow-white, non-poisonous substance, and will never inflame or irritate the most tender skin. Cutting or paring corns often produces blood poisoning, and people are warned to stop it.

Just ask in any drug store for a small jar of Ios-Mint, which will cost little, yet is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callous. You'll like it immensely.—Adv.

ROSENSTEIN PLEADS GUILTY IN BAFF MURDER CASE

Trials of Three Other Indicted Men Postponed Until Next Monday.

The trial of Jacob and Joseph Cohen, Abraham Graff and David Jacobs on an indictment charging murder in the first degree for alleged participation in the killing of Harnet Baff, the poultry man, was postponed to-day by Justice Tompkins in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court until next Monday at the request of Deputy Attorney Becker.

Morris Rosenstein, indicted for murder in connection with the Baff case, was allowed to plead guilty to manslaughter in the first degree, after which he was remanded to the Tombs by Justice Tompkins. Rosenstein, known as "Chicken Moe," was arrested in Chicago recently and, according to the authorities, has turned State's evidence.

Jack Rizzotto, another man indicted for the Baff killing, pleaded not guilty to the charge of murder. The police say Rizzotto, who was brought back from Italy as one of the principal witnesses for the State, had refused to testify against the prisoners.

BANDITS GET $30,000; ROB TRAIN IN CHICAGO

Masked Men Blind Messengers and Loot Safe in C. B. & Q. Express Car.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Two armed and masked men entered the Adams Express car of Chicago, Burlington and Quincy passenger train No. 3 in the railroad yards late last night, bound Ward R. Smiley, the messenger, and A. R. Andrews, his assistant, and escaped with between $25,000 and $30,000, according to the story told by Smiley and Andrews to-day.

Smiley and Andrews are being detained by the police pending a thorough investigation. They said they had been bound by men who held revolvers at their heads, but had escaped by gnawing each other's bonds.

The robbery occurred while the train was being made up. The money, one sack of gold and two of silver, had been locked in a safe and a knob removed, a customary precaution.

Andrews and Smiley reported that the robbers jumped from behind a trunk. When the messengers had been overpowered, they said the robbers fitted a duplicate knob to the safe and proceeded to open the strong box. Having obtained the money, they jumped from the train and escaped.

The police arrested James Burgess, in charge of the Burlington freight house, on the theory that the robbery was an "inside job."

Harding's Salary Is $100,000 by a $50,000 Error.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Instead of appropriating $100,000 for next year's salary for Gov. Harding of the Panama Canal Zone, Congress by mistake appropriated $150,000. Some one apparently added another cipher to the original figure. It will take an act of Congress to rectify the error.

FOUR INDICTMENTS AGAINST MRS. RAY HYMAN

East Side's Alleged "Get-Rich-Quick Lady" Charged With Grand Larceny.

The New York County Grand Jury to-day returned four indictments for grand larceny against Mrs. Ray Hyman, the East Side's alleged "get-rich-quick lady," whose "money factory" enabled her to pay clients 50 per cent a month interest. The indictments were filed with Judge Wadhams in General Sessions Court.

Mrs. Hyman will not be arraigned to plead to the indictments until the bankruptcy proceedings against her in the Federal Court have been disposed of. Legally speaking, Mrs. Hyman is a much courted woman, another proceeding against her pending in the Yorkville Court.

LAVINE, A "VEGETARIAN," SEEKS LONGER JAIL TERM

Judge Mayer Thinks Four Months Enough for the Slacker—Others Get 30 Days.

After being sentenced to serve four months for failing to register for military service on June 5, Philip Lavine, in the Federal Court to-day, asked Judge Mayer to give him a year. "I am a vegetarian," he said, "and I might just as well be in jail for a year as four months." The Judge refused.

Herman Woscow, who was arrested with Lavine in the Royal Lyceum Hall raid, was sentenced to serve thirty days. He was given the lighter sentence because of his expressions of regret and willingness to register.

John X. Ducas, who was caught trying to change the date of his birth on the records in the Naturalization Bureau to make himself above military age, was sentenced to thirty days.
